
Ebola Virus Disease

The Ebola virus disease has recently been in the news. As a public health issue, county departments including Emergency Management, Emergency Medical Services and others are working closely with the Florida Department of Health and its local offices who lead Florida's efforts in preparation and response to this emerging risk.

For further information, see the state of Florida Department of Health website.

- Ebola Virus Disease
 - Ebola Newsroom
-