

Web Resources

Find the recycling answers you need—at your fingertips.

Is this directory available online?

Yes. Access the Recycle Today directory in a web-friendly format with added hyperlinks at pinellascounty.org/recycle. We provide a hard copy in addition to the Web version because not all residents have access to a computer, and some people prefer a printed copy for quick reference.

What recycling resources are available online?

Valuable resources found at pinellascounty.org/recycle include:

- A to Z Guide (see sidebar)
- beach recycling (NEW)
- business recycling
- city recycling flyers
- event recycling
- hazardous waste recycling
- Just for Kids (see below)
- Just for Teachers (see below)
- motor oil recycling sites
- recycling FAQs

How is the information kept up to date?

Pinellas County staff work closely with each municipality to ensure that updated information is provided on the website. Regular updates are done for the A to Z Guide, which totals over 230 pages, and a comprehensive update is performed once a year to verify every item listed. Citizens are invited to help update our materials using the contact information at the bottom of this page.

What if a recycling program changes?

Occasionally, there are changes that occur after the annual recycling directory is distributed in January. You can always find the most up-to-date information online at pinellascounty.org/recycle. There is a print-ready Web flyer available for each city that lists the curbside and drop-off recycling programs available and the free recycled mulch sites.

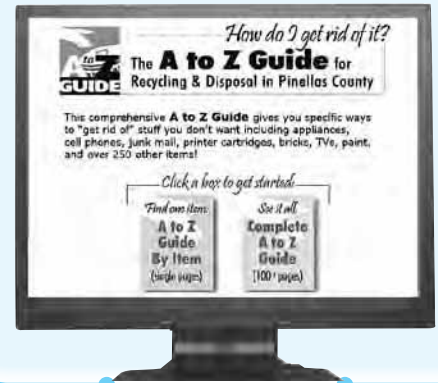

A to Z Guide

What is the A to Z Guide?

The A to Z Guide for Recycling and Disposal in Pinellas County was created to answer the question, "How do I get rid of it?" Before trashing an item, check the guide to find environmentally friendly alternatives.

How do I use the guide?

Visit pinellascounty.org/recycle, and select A to Z Guide. The easy-to-use guide provides convenient local options to reduce, reuse, recycle or safely dispose of over 250 items.

Web Resources for Educators and Children

Just for Teachers

Both teachers and parents use our Just for Teachers site to find free resources for educating children about conservation, such as printable worksheets. "Lesson planning is easy with Just for Teachers which lists the Sunshine State Standards." (E. Uber, teacher, Jamerson Elementary School).
