BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF PINELLAS COUNTY

in a meeting duly assembled this _____ day of _____ 2013, that:

Section 1. Section 114-213 of the Pinellas County Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 114-213. - Governing body; program management.

The board of county commissioners shall be the governing body of the district. The board of county commissioners shall contract with a nonprofit corporation created for the purposes set forth in this article for the administration and operation of the business and affairs of the district within a reasonable time after the effective date of sections 114-216 or 114-217 of this article. The articles of the nonprofit corporation referenced above shall provide:

- (1) For a board of directors, to be comprised of the following:
 - a. One director who is an officer or director of, and appointed by, the Palm Harbor Friends of the Library, Inc.;
 - b. One director who is an officer or director of, and appointed by, the Palm Harbor Recreation League, Inc., only if section 114-217 becomes effective;
 - c. One director who is an officer or director of, and appointed by, the East Lake Community Library Advisory Board, Inc.; and
 - d. Four directors appointed by the board of county commissioners. Each county commissioner representing the three at-large districts shall nominate one director each and the county commissioner representing District 4 shall nominate one director.
- (2) The terms of office of the board of directors shall be for two years each from the date of their appointment. A director may serve no more than two successive terms. Each director shall be a qualified Pinellas County elector, and shall reside within the district except for the director appointed by the East Lake Community Library Advisory Board, Inc., who shall reside in the East Lake Library Services District established pursuant to Section 114-330 of this code. If any director ceases to reside anywhere within the required district, resigns from office, or is removed for cause from office, his/her office shall be declared vacant, he/she shall be disqualified from further service, and a new director shall be appointed as provided in subsection (1) of this section to fill the unexpired term of office. Each director shall hold office until his/her successor is appointed and qualified. Any resignation by a director shall be accepted.

- (3) A record shall be kept of all meetings of such corporation, and in such meetings the concurrence of a majority of such directors shall be necessary to any affirmative action by such corporation; provided however, the director appointed by the Palm Harbor Friends of the Library, Inc. shall not be entitled to vote on matters pertaining to the appropriation and expenditure of funds relating to recreation programs or the East Lake Library; and the director appointed by the Palm Harbor Recreation League, Inc. shall not be entitled to vote on matters pertaining to the appropriation and expenditure of funds relating to the Palm Harbor Library or East Lake Library programs, and the director appointed by the East Lake Community Library Advisory Board, Inc. shall not be entitled to vote on matters pertaining to the appropriation and expenditure of funds relating to recreation programs or the Palm Harbor Library. The board of directors may adopt such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary regarding the transaction of its business and in carrying out the provisions of this article, subject to approval by the board of county commissioners.
- (4) The board of directors shall, within 30 days of their qualification and appointment, and annually thereafter, elect from their number a chair, a vice-chair, and a secretary-treasurer.
- (5) That directors shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be entitled to reasonable per diem and travel expenses incurred in furtherance of authorized business of the district subject to the limitations provided in F.S. §112.061, and subject to approval by the board of directors.

Section 2. Transition.

The County has previously entered into an agreement with the Palm Harbor Community Services Agency, Inc., a Florida nonprofit corporation, to manage the business and affairs of the district, as authorized by and pursuant to, Section 114-213 of the article. This corporation shall revise its articles, by-laws, and other corporate documents as necessary to comply with this Ordinance within thirty (30) days of its effective date, and shall reorganize its board of directors with the new appointees of the board of county commissioners at the next directors' meeting after notification of the appointments. The new appointees of the board of county commissioners shall initially serve the unexpired terms of the directors they replace.

Section 3. Severability.

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or provision of this Ordinance is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not be construed to render the remaining provisions of this Ordinance invalid or unconstitutional.

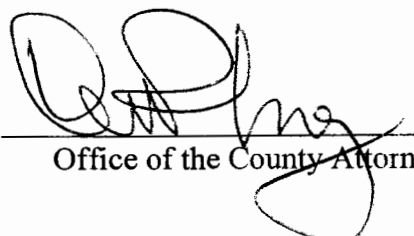

Section 4. Codification.

The provisions of this Ordinance shall be included and incorporated in the Pinellas County Code as an addition thereto, and shall be appropriately numbered to conform to the uniform system of the Code.

Section 5. Filing of Ordinance; Effective Date.

Pursuant to Section 125.66, Florida Statutes, a certified copy of this Ordinance shall be filed with the Department of State by the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners within ten (10) days after the enactment by the Board of County Commissioners. This Ordinance shall take effect on October 1, 2013.
