APPOINTMENTS TO THE PINELLAS COUNTY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

On June 10, 2003, the Board of County Commissioners approved an ordinance providing for the repeal of Section 2-441 of the Pinellas County Code, which had previously created the St. Petersburg/Clearwater Area Economic Development Council. Section 2-441 of the Pinellas County Code was restated to create the Pinellas County Economic Development Council.

The ordinance states that the Council is to be made up of not more than 100 members who are to be appointed by the Board of County Commissioners. Members shall serve two-year terms, and are to be nominated by businesses, business organizations, business trade associations, and the Board of County Commissioners.

There are two new appointments going before the Board for approval with term expirations set for September 2016.

The Sports Facilities Advisory and The Sports Facilities Management, LLC

Dev Pathik has been a resident and business owner in Pinellas County since 1998. He is an Alumni of Leadership Pinellas, a member on The Suncoast YMCA Board of Directors and the Clearwater Downtown Partnership and is involved in a variety of community events and organizations.

In the late '90's Dev opened a ten-acre corporate teambuilding and leadership development center at the Westin Innisbrook Resort. He then grew and sold two other companies before opening SFA in 2003.

Dev founded The Sports Facilities Advisory in 2003 to bring professional funding and planning services to the youth and amateur sports marketplace. The Sports Facilities Management (SFM) was launched to deliver management excellence through outsourced sports complex management that allows facility owners to benefit from SFM's proven systems and talent. Together the two firms have overseen the financial forecasts, funding, and management of a portfolio totaling more than $4 Billion in youth and amateur sports complexes. SFA and SFM have become globally recognized brands that provide confidence for funding sources and results beyond grand opening. Both companies and the Bo Jackson's Elite Sports Development Group are headquartered in Downtown Clearwater in the Bank of America building.

The firms clients include the United States National Parks Service, The Salvation Army, The National Sports Authority of the Bahamas, The Canada Games Centre, Chic Fil-A corporation, numerous tourist destinations around the world, various sports commission, retired/current professional athletes, hospitals, school systems, and a wide range of economic development entities.

Dev is a partner in Bo Jackson's Elite Sports Development Group and has other business interests in the community sport and recreation markets. He is a regularly sought after advisor to national, state and local government entities seeking to improve economic impact and community engagement through sport, sports tourism, recreation and sports venue management.

As an adventure traveler Dev has led international climbing and adventure expeditions in some of the most remote regions on earth. His extensive travels have included expeditions in rural Vietnam, Thailand, Ecuador, Argentina, Mexico, India, and numerous other destinations.

Dev has been a board or member, guest or keynote speaker, or advisor to the following organizations:

- YMCA of the Suncoast Board Member
- St. Leo University Sports Advisory Council
- Clearwater Downtown Partnership
- Leadership Pinellas
- U.S. Indoor Sports Association
- Athletic Business
- International Association of Experiential Education (Prestigious Organizational Member of the Year award)
- American Advertising Federation
- National Association of Sports Commissions
- The United States Sports Congress
