Applications now being accepted for Palm Harbor Community Services Agency Inc. board

The Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners is accepting applications for four vacancies on the board of directors of the Palm Harbor Community Services Agency Inc. The nonprofit corporation currently manages and oversees the Palm Harbor and East Lake Community libraries and recreational programs. Each appointment will serve a two-year term.

Applicants must be registered voters and reside within the boundaries located within one of the following districts: the Palm Harbor Special Fire Control District, the East Lake Library Services District, or the East Lake Recreation Services District.

Applications are available online at <https://fs30.formsite.com/Pinellas8/form41/index.html> . All applications must be received by the close of business on Friday, Oct. 16. Members of the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners will review all applications and make their selections at the Tuesday, Nov. 10, county commission meeting.

The Pinellas County "Doing Things for You" app is available for residents to report issues and access useful resources. Pinellas County can also be found on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Instagram. Videos can be found at www.youtube.com/pcctv1. More information is available on the county website, www.pinellascounty.org, which features LiveChat for assistance. Pinellas County complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act.
