Applications accepted for Technical Management Committee

Applications are now being accepted for an appointment to the Technical Management Committee. This appointment is for a term of two years and until a successor has been appointed and qualified.

The Pinellas County Technical Management Committee serves as an advisory board to the Pinellas County Department of Solid Waste. The committee consists of 13 members, with two members appointed by the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners; two members appointed by the city St. Petersburg City Council; one member appointed by each of the respective city commissions for Clearwater, Dunedin, Largo, Pinellas Park, St. Pete Beach, and Tarpon Springs; one member appointed by the combined city commissions of Belleair, Belleair Bluffs, Oldsmar and Safety Harbor; one member appointed by the combined city commissions of Seminole, Kenneth City, Gulfport and South Pasadena; and one member appointed by the combined city commissions of Indian Rocks Beach, Indian Shores, Belleair Beach, Belleair Shore, North Redington Beach, Redington Beach, Redington Shores, Treasure Island, and Madeira Beach.

This appointment is for one of the two members appointed by the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners.

The committee meets periodically to review and make recommendations to the governing body concerning rates, formation, implementation and revision of policies and programs; location and establishment of solid waste disposal and resource recovery system facilities; introduction and integration of new technologies, major equipment acquisition; selection of consultants; approval and submission of grant applications; and any other management or operational policies.

To be considered for this position, an applicant must have experience in the field of solid waste collection and disposal, utility management, health, public administration, engineering, accounting, economics, auditing, or environmental resources.

Mandatory applications can be found at www.pinellascounty.org/boards and must be received no later than the close of business on Friday, Feb. 5.

The Board of County Commissioners will review the applications and select the member and alternate from the qualified applicants.

Please Note: All materials submitted to Pinellas County government are subject to the public records law of the State of Florida.

The Pinellas County “Doing Things for You” app is available for residents to report issues and access useful resources. Pinellas County can also be found on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Instagram.
