

Pinellas County Charter Review Commission

Issues Identified for Discussion

Revised February 9, 2010

1. Pinellas Planning Council

The authority, duties and structure of the Pinellas Planning Council.

2. Non-partisan Election of Supervisor of Elections

Whether elections for the Supervisor of Elections should be held on a non-partisan basis, without reference to party affiliation.

3. Future Charter Review Commissions

The membership, duration, frequency of convening and other policies relating to subsequent Charter Review Commissions.

4. Code of Ethics

Examination of the provisions of the Charter and BCC policy (as contained in the Code of Ethics) concerning lobbying.

5. Single Subject Rule

Whether charter amendments proposed by a Charter Review Commission should be required to concern only one subject and matter directly related thereto.

6. Elected County Mayor

Whether the charter should be amended to provide for a County Mayor, directly-elected by the voters, who would serve as the head of the Executive Branch of the county government.

7. Seven Single-Member Districts

Whether the districting system for the Board of County Commissioners should be changed from its current system of four single-member and three at-large districts to a system of seven single-member districts.
