To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform the essential job functions satisfactorily. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the primary job functions herein described. Since every duty associated with this position may not be described herein, employees may be required to perform duties not specifically spelled out in the job description, but which may be reasonably considered to be incidental in the performing of their duties just as though they were actually written out in this job description.

JOB SUMMARY

This is responsible technical and professional work with administrative responsibility to administer and process all types of claims and tasks related to insurance, i.e., workers’ compensation claims, complex casualty/bodily injury, property damage, public liability and miscellaneous other claims adjustments or mitigation. An incumbent in this class plans, coordinates, monitors, and participates in the analysis and investigation within the standardized practices for claims handling. Responsibilities include interpreting and applying complex rules and regulations; maintaining working relationships with claimants, health care providers, attorneys, governmental agencies, insurance companies, physicians, claimants’ family, the public, and all levels of county employees. Incumbents perform work involving review and adjudication of claims including workers’ compensation (indemnity and medical claims), casualty, property, and other losses. Work may require a comprehensive knowledge of insurance principles and practices covering all lines of insurance, combined with a working knowledge of medically related impairments and diseases. This work also includes responsibility to review procurement, contracts, and other policies designed to apply protections and insurance to persons or property, determining that adequate insurance exists to protect Pinellas County Government interests, settling claims arising under insurance contracts, or performing other similar insurance tasks. Work is generally broad in scope with frequent opportunity for exercising independent judgment and major decisions are subject to final review and approval by a management official.
