

THE PINELLAS COUNTY
UNIFIED PERSONNEL SYSTEM BOARD

IN RE:

Appeal of 3-Day Suspension

ANDREW BELICH,

Appeal No. 15-06

Appellant

v.

PINELLAS COUNTY
SAFETY AND EMERGENCY SERVICES,

Appellee.

/

APPOINTING AUTHORITY'S MOTION TO CONTINUE

Appellee, pursuant to §5, Appeal Procedures of the Pinellas County Unified Personnel System Board, submits this request for a continuance of the hearing currently scheduled for Thursday, December 3, 2015, and in support of same says:

1. Appellant's appeal before the Personnel Board is currently scheduled for Thursday, December 3, 2015 at 4:00 p.m.
2. Appellant is appealing his three-day suspension.
3. Andrea Gammon, Administrative Support Supervisor, is an essential witness for Appellee.
4. Andrea Gammon, Administrative Support Supervisor is unavailable on December 3, 2015.
5. Appellee is unable to effectively present its case without the testimony of Andrea Gammon, Administrative Support Supervisor.
6. This is the first time a continuance in this matter has been requested.
7. Appellant does not agree to a continuance.

Wherefore, Appellee requesting the hearing currently scheduled for Thursday, December 3, 2015, be rescheduled.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a copy of the foregoing has been furnished by U.S. Mail to Andrew Belich, Appellant; by electronic mail to his advocates, Leena Delli Paoli at ldellipaoli@pinellascounty.org and Steve Yeatman at syeatman@pinellascounty.org; to Peggy Sellards, Human Resources, at psellards@pinellascounty.org and hand-delivery to Michelle Wallace, counsel for the Personnel Board on the 23rd day of October, 2015.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Pam Bell", written over a horizontal line.

Pam Bell, Billing Manager for
Jodie Sechler, Director, Ambulance Billing
& Financial Services Division*

*Signed on her behalf to prevent further delay