EXHIBIT "B"

a. Upon the death of the Life Tenant, the life estate shall terminate and title to the property and all improvements thereto, including all fixtures now or hereafter attached to any buildings on the property shall vest in and become the property of the Remainderman.

b. Life Tenant may insure any improvements he places on the property sufficient to protect his interest therein.

c. Life Tenant shall keep and repair the property in as good a condition as at the time of creation of this life estate; provided, however Life Tenant need not restore or replace buildings on the property that may be destroyed by fire or other casualty not the fault of Life Tenant. Life Tenant shall make all repairs to improvements located on the property which Life Tenant deems necessary to maintain the property for Life Tenant's use, at Life Tenant's expense. Any improvements to the property, including new construction or renovation of existing improvements, shall be at Life Tenant's sole expense and, at the death of Life Tenant, shall become the property of Remainderman. Remainderman shall not owe any compensation to Life Tenant for any improvements that Life Tenant places on the property.

d. Life Tenant shall not commit or permit waste of the property and shall be liable to Remainderman for any such waste, or any loss or reduction in value of the property which is the result of fraud or gross and willful negligence on the part of the Life Tenant.

e. Life Tenant shall use the property for non-commercial recreational and temporary residential purposes only. It is the intent of the parties hereto that Life Tenant shall not during his life tenancy unreasonably increase the burden of his use of the property beyond that in existence as of the time of creation of his life tenancy, without Remainderman's prior written consent. Life Tenant shall not use the property for any illegal use. Life Tenant shall, at all times, comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, rules, regulations and ordinances relating to the use of the property. Any and all improvements to the property shall be in compliance with said laws, rules, regulations and ordinances.

f. Life Tenant shall not lease the property without Remainderman's prior written consent.

g. Life Tenant shall have no power or authority to sell, mortgage, pledge, convey or otherwise encumber the remainderman's interest in the property. If Life Tenant sells, mortgages, pledges, conveys or encumbers the remainderman's interest in the property, or if any attempt is made to subject the remainderman's interest in the property to liability for payment of Life Tenant's debts or the debts of his wife and children, if any, then his life estate shall immediately terminate and the property and all improvements thereto shall pass to Remainderman.

h. If Life Tenant becomes insolvent or bankrupt, whether such bankruptcy is voluntary or involuntary, then the life estate shall terminate and the property and all improvements thereto shall pass to Remainderman.

i. Life Tenant shall not excavate or mine the property for the purpose of production of oil, gas or any other minerals underlying the property.

j. If, after closing, the property becomes subject to a special assessment for public improvements which benefits the the remainder of the property, the assessment shall be apportioned between the Life Tenant and Remainderman with the Life Tenant paying that portion of the assessment equal to the ratio of his remaining life expectancy at the time of construction of the public improvement divided by the estimated life of the improvement.

k. Life Tenant shall be responsible for payment of any taxes and assessments, subject to subparagraph (j), on the property when due.

If Life Tenant fails to pay such taxes and/or assessments when due, the life estate shall terminate and the property and all improvements thereto shall pass to Remainderman.

1. At all times during his life tenancy, Life Tenant shall maintain the following insurance coverage:

Comprehensive General Liability covering liability assumed under indemnification provisions of this Agreement, with Combined Single limits of liability for property damage and personal injury and/or bodily injury, including death, of not less than $100,000 per person and not less than $300,000 each occurrence. Coverage shall be on an "occurrence" basis, and the policy shall include Broad Form Property Damage coverage. Limits may be provided by any combination of Primary and Excess coverage so long as minimum coverages and limits are provided without gaps:

A Certificate of insurance shall be filed and maintained with the Pinellas County Department of Risk Management during the term of the life estate, and Life Tenant shall notify Remainderman with twenty-four (24) hours after receipt of any notice of expiration, cancellation, non-renewal or material change in coverage. Companies issuing the insurance policy or policies, shall have no recourse against County for payment of premiums or assessments for any deductibles which are at the sole responsibility and risk of Life Tenant. The Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners shall be endorsed to the required policy or policies as an additional insured. The policy clause "Other Insurance" shall not apply to any insurance coverage currently held by County, to any such future coverage, or to County's Self-Insured Retentions of whatever nature.

m. Life Tenant agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Remainderman from and against all loss or expense (including costs and attorney's fees) by reason of liability imposed by law upon Remainderman for damages (including any strict or statutory liability and any liability under Worker's Compensation Laws) because of bodily injury, including death, at the time therefrom, sustained by any person or persons, or damage to property, including loss of use thereof, arising out of or in consequence of the use of the property, whether such injuries to persons or damage to property is due or claimed to be due to the negligence of the Life Tenant, his sub-contractors, the Remainderman, their agents or employees, except only such injury or damage as shall have been occasioned by the sole negligence of the Remainderman.
