A GUIDE TO
Aerosol Can Management

Pinellas County
SOLID WASTE
BUSINESS WASTE ASSESSMENTS
SMALL QUANTITY GENERATOR PROGRAM
Aerosol cans may be hazardous due to propellant’s reactivity and/or hazardous contents.

Is can empty of both product and propellant?

- Yes
  - Recycle or trash
  - Recycle or trash

- No
  - Option #1: Manage can as a hazardous waste
  - Option #2: Puncture can using proper equipment following mfr.’s directions

Are contents hazardous?

- Yes
  - Recycle
  - Recycle
  - Non-Hazardous Waste

- No
  - Recycle
  - Recycle
  - Hazardous Waste

Small Quantity Generator Program
(727) 464-7500
www.pinellascounty.org/solidwaste/sqg.htm

Pinellas County complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act. To obtain accessible formats of this document, please call (727) 464-4802 (VTDD). Produced in cooperation with Pinellas County Marketing & Communications. Funding provided by Pinellas County Solid Waste. 3,000 cards were printed at a cost of $240.00 or $0.08 each.

Printed on recycled paper.