Compressed Air / Gas Tanks

tanks or cylinders for oxygen, acetylene, helium, argon, nitrogen, breathing gas (for scuba diving), etc.

These are hazardous waste. Do NOT dispose with regular trash!

1. Return to the distributor (see decal or name stamped on the tank). For example, you should return an oxygen tank to the company that owns it.
2. Drop off at a welding company for recycling. See Yellow Pages “Welding” for a list of companies.
3. Drop off scuba tanks at a dive shop for reuse or recycling. The following stores accept scuba tanks (no charge):
