

Intern Opportunities

Position (Non-Paid):	Engineer Student Intern
Department:	Public Works
Duties:	This part-time internship position will provide college students an opportunity to gain real-world experience in the engineering field of study while working in support of a group of Public Works professionals. Students will assist with community drainage complaints by performing research and investigation. Typical assignments may also include drainage and transportation research; cost estimation and information tracking; infrastructure design using AutoCAD and/or GIS; assisting with document and permit preparation; asset management and project management support as well as assistance with a variety of tasks on civil, transportation, stormwater and environmental projects.
Location:	22211 US Hwy 19 N. Clearwater 33765
Map:	gmap
Schedule:	Flexible
Additional Information:	Pinellas County Public Works is seeking a self-motivated student pursuing a Civil/Environmental Engineering major from an ABET accredited university with the following coursework requirements (for credit or non-credit): Applicants should be civil or environmental engineering students having completed basic hydrology and hydraulics or GIS coursework and interested in pursuing a career in water resources engineering, environmental protection or public works.
Facility Operating Hours:	Mon. – Fri. 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Contact:	Contact to Tyler Cothron at (727) 464-8839 or by email .
How to Apply:	First contact the department to discuss the position. Then complete the brief internship application .

Thank you for your interest in internships at Pinellas County!