

Volunteer Opportunities

Position:	Human Resources Ambassador
Department:	Human Resources (Volunteer Services)
Duties:	If you are friendly, enjoy helping people and can commit to one weekly 4-hour shift, you already have some of the necessary qualifications to become a Human Resources (HR) Ambassador. The HR Ambassador's station is often the first contact our citizens have and we strive to create a pleasant as well as informative experience while people conduct County business, inquire about volunteer or employment opportunities or just need assistance with directional information. As a Human Resources Ambassador you will be well trained as an information representative to meet the needs of citizens, give directional information as well as assist with questions concerning County departments.
