Agenda Outcomes –

I. Call to Order

Dayita Wable, chairperson, called the meeting to order at 3:04 p.m. She introduced Libby Bolling, a presenter for Pinellas Citizen University. She discussed and explained the 2016 Pinellas Citizen University Schedule and what it was all about. Dayita asked which seemed most beneficial to the committee. Committee members expressed their opinions about the different opportunities available. Kevin Lai motioned to approve the top five choices, which were the First Response, Animal Services, Justice Served, Supervisor of Elections, and Get Out of Jail opportunities. Marc LeVine seconds this motion. The committee formally thanks Libby for her time. The table in the Appendix shows the session schedule options with their corresponding number of votes.

II. Discussion of Video Concept pt. 1

Kevin Lai motioned to change the discussion of the Video Concept until the next meeting and Justin Barlas seconded.

III. Discussion of changing location and time of monthly meetings

Camille asked about where the different possible locations could be, so Heather pulled up the location spots on Maps. The committee was trying to figure out if it is easier to stay in the same location and push the time back or move the location and keep the same time. Justin motioned to move the start time back by fifteen minutes, and Talia seconded. The motion was passed for Pinellas County Youth Advisory Committee to be held at 3:15pm at the same location in Clearwater.

IV. Discussion of Video Concept pt. 2

Because the committee meeting was doing well on time, discussion of the video concept was brought up again. Justin suggested that the video should stand out with the idea that “I AM YAC,” showing who the committee is and what they do. The rest of the committee unanimously agreed with this idea.

V. Adjourn

Justin motioned to adjourn and Kevin seconded. Meeting adjourned by unanimous vote at 3:47 p.m.
