Press Release

PINELLAS LEGISLATIVE DELEGATION 2nd MEETING ON SEWAGE DISCHARGE AFTER HURRICANE HERMINE

Senator Jack Latvala, (R-Clearwater), chairman of the Pinellas County Legislative Delegation, announced a follow-up workshop meeting of the delegation to hear and discuss more about the effects of the recent discharge of untreated sewage into Tampa Bay waters by cities in Pinellas County during Hurricane Hermine.

The meeting will be held from 9:00 – 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday, November 16 at the Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital Education and Conference Center, which is located at 701 4th St. S. in St. Petersburg.

A presentation will be made by the Florida Dept. of Environmental Protection. This meeting is a workshop format, and the public is invited to attend. The meeting must end promptly at 11:30 a.m., and there may be limited time for public input.
